Chapter 11

They've gone to the shops

Conversation

- C: Lakeside cottage. How may I help you?
- B: Good morning. My name is Jack Brown and I would like to reserve accommodation.
- C: Very well, sir. When would you like to come?
- B: In the second week of July.
- C: That is perfect; the cottage is free at that time. How many people will be there?
- B: My whole family, altogether four people. And we would like to take our dog with us.
- C: That is all right. We love dogs and there is a dog kennel in the yard.
- B: Wonderful. Can you tell me something about the prices and extra services?
- C: The cottage costs £495 for a week. We can provide you meals. You can rent a boat, fishing equipment, bicycles and various sport equipment. The complete list is on our webpage. The internet address is www.lakesidecottage.co.uk. You don't have to reserve those in advance.
- B: I will have a look at the webpage, thank you.
- C: Very well. If you want to reserve the cottage you will have to pay a deposit of £200 now. You can cancel your booking up to one week before your planned stay.
- B: Okay.
- C: Can I have your credit card information?
- B: Yes, it is 1234 1234 1234 1234. The expiry date is 10/22 and the name on the card is Jack Brown.
- C: What is the security code?
- B: Oh, it's 123.
- C: Thank you for the booking. I'm sure you will have a lovely vacation with us.
- B: Thank you. Good bye.
- C: Good bye.
