Chapter 21

Revision 3

Positive English page 237 – An important holiday

20 September, 2016

Dear Jill,

You wrote me about Independence Day earlier this year. It is one of the most important holidays in your country and actually it is the birthday of America.

We have a holiday that is just as important for us. It is August 20, the holiday remembering the first king, Saint Stephen of Hungary. He was the founder of modern Hungary and he had a great role in making it a Christian nation that's why the Roman Catholic Church made him a saint.

On the holiday family members usually come together and have traditional meals. We enjoy being together. Incidentally this is also a time we celebrate "new bread", the first bread made from new crop. For many years during the communist rule it was called the "Holiday of New Bread."

There are many programs in the centre of the town. It is the time when one of the music schools organizes live performances. Also, folk dance groups have programs. The celebration ends in a spectacular fireworks display. We always enjoy that.

Next time I'll write you more about our traditions.

Yours,

Jack
